

Sally Anderson

Designer

Archetype Architects
Portland, Maine

Sally has been with Archetype since 2009, Sally acts as Designer on a wide range of the firm's work; including medical facilities, hospitality and commercial projects. Sally grew up in Maine, went to design school in New York City and has experience doing commercial and residential interior design living in New York, Washington DC and Seattle. In 2008 she moved back to Maine with her husband to raise her daughter in Portland close to friends and family (and free baby-sitting). Sally works as designer on a variety of projects doing space planning as well as selection of interior finishes.

Education

Bachelor of Fine Arts, Interior Design

Parsons School Of Design, New York, NY 2004

Project Experience

Hampton Inn and Suites, Exeter, NH
Coastal Women's Healthcare, South Portland, ME